COMMUNICATION
BY JAGIELLONIAN UNIVERSITY VICE-RECTOR FOR RESEARCH of 11 January 2023

on: submitting research project funding proposals in the 14th call in the LIDER programme.

This is to inform you that the National Centre for Research and Development (NCBR) has announced a call for proposals in the 14th call in its programme LIDER. The programme seeks to develop young researchers' skills in independent planning of research and management of their own research team in projects showing prospects of practical application and implementation potential.

The programme is addressed to persons who:

1. are doctoral students or academic teachers – and hold no doctoral degree or have held doctoral degree for up to 7 years (this period does not include maternity leave, adoption leave, paternity leave, parental leave or child-care leave, periods of receiving sick pay or rehabilitation benefit on account of incapacity to work (this period is counted from the date of taking the degree of doctor),
2. are authors of publications in renowned journals or have patents or implementations to their name,
3. have not participated in the programme LIDER in the role of principal investigator,
4. have Polish citizenship or a Polish residence permit or are EU citizens who stay in the Republic of Poland for more than 3 months and their stays are registered.

Terms and conditions of application in the call are available on the websites of:

- NCBR: Lider XIV - Narodowe Centrum Badań i Rozwoju - Portal Gov.pl \(www.gov.pl\)
- The Research Support Centre (RSC): www.cwn.uj.edu.pl → "Open calls" → "NCBiR open calls"

Basic information on drawing up projects:

- Proposals submitted in the call may address subjects in all research domains: natural sciences, engineering and technology, medical and health sciences, agricultural sciences, social sciences and humanities.
- The minimum and maximum period of project implementation are 12 months and 36 months respectively.
- Maximum funding per project is PLN 1.8 million.
- Indirect costs constitute 25% of funding and apply to categories "Salaries" and "Other direct costs".
- The cost of purchase or construction of equipment/appliances used for research purposes will be considered eligible as long as the asset is essential to proper performance of the project and is used directly in its implementation, and as long as the following conditions are met:
 - value of the equipment, IT infrastructure or other equipment does not exceed PLN 500,000,
 - the entity has no equipment/fixed asset that could replace it,
 - the procurement procedure is conducted in a manner ensuring fair competition, equal treatment of contractors, openness, transparency of the procedure and selection of contractors, as well as efficiency understood as purposeful and economical spending in accordance with the procedure indicated by the NCBiR.
